Faculty devp programme in TU from April 26

CORRESPONDENT

TEZPUR, April 7: The Teaching Learning Centre (TLC), Tezpur University is gearing up for a week-long online faculty development programme (FDP) on implementation of National Education Policy-2020 in higher educational institutions to be held from April 26 to May 2.

Faculty members from various colleges and universities are expected to participate in the upcoming FDP which will highlight implementation strategies for various aspects of NEP-2020 including – role of policy in higher education, access equity and inclusion in higher education, curriculum and pedagogy in NEP-2020, enabling learner support for optimal learning, innovative teaching, multidisciplinary research, digital education/ technology enabled learning, regulation and quality assurance etc.

Renowned educationists and academic administrators like Dr Shakila Shamsu, Former OSD, National Education Policy-2020, Prof Pankaj Mittal, Secretary General, Association of Indian Universities, Prof. Alak K Buragohain, Chancellor, Girijananda Chowdhury University, Prof Avinash Chandra Pandey, Director, Inter-University Accelerator Centre, New Delhi, Prof Debabrata Das, Vice Chancellor, ARGUCOM and many more will interact with the participants. There will be a special panel discussion on May 1, which will be attended by the Vice-Chancellors from around 6 universities of India.

Participation in this week-long FDP will help the attendees to understand the nitty-gritty of implementation of NEP so that the same can be implemented in their respective institutions in its true letter and spirit. This programme is to be considered for fulfilment of the requirements as laid down in Career Advancement Scheme of UGC. Interested participants may visit Tezpur University website for details.
