TU to document unsung heroes of Northeast

TEZPUR, Feb 15: A memorandum of understanding was signed between the Department of Cultural Studies, Tezpur University, and the Centre for Cultural Resources and Training (CCRT), Union Ministry of Culture, to set up a digital district repository under Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav and CCRT.

"The project will document the stories related to Indian freedom struggle of all districts, including the rich cultural repository and heritage of India. The Department of Cultural Studies will specifically focus on unsung heroes of the freedom struggle of all the districts of the Northeast," an official source said. The MoU was inked by Prof Debarshi Prasad Nath, head of cultural studies, TU, and Dibakar Das, deputy director, scholarship and fellowship, CCRT, New Delhi, at the university. — Correspondent
